The International Activity Badge

This award is awarded to both youth and adult registered members. It is a 3-inch diameter multi-colored patch worn as temporary insignia on the right pocket.

The award is earned by completing participating in different international activities and completing the requirements for various related badges.

Some of them include:

- Participate in a World Jamboree
- Participate in Jamboree-on-the-Air (JOTA), Jamboree-on-the Trail (JOTT)
- Earning Citizenship in the World merit badge
- Earn the Language and Culture Belt Loop and Pin
- Earn the World Conservation Award
- Visit Scouts in another country or host visiting Scouts

There is no time restriction; a requirement may have been completed any time in the past.

The complete list of requirements can be found at <http://international.ocbsa.org/applications.shtml>

Scouts on Stamps Society International

SOSSI is a nonprofit philatelic organization specializing in the collecting, study, and enjoyment of stamps and other postal items celebrating the Boy Scout and GirlGuide movements.

The first stamps considered to be "Scout" stamps were issued in 1900 from the Cape of Good Hope. These 3 stamps featured Lord Baden-Powell and boy bicycle messenger. The first stamps issued after Scouting actually started in 1907 were a pair from Czechoslovakia in 1918. The first stamp to actually picture a Scout was issued by Hungary in 1925.

Visit SOSSI's official website at www.sossi.org for more information.
