The International Division of the Boy Scouts of America has introduced a new emblem that seeks to broaden knowledge of international Scouting and increase appreciation and awareness of different cultures and countries. Unlike its predecessor, the International Activity Badge, the standards for the International Spirit Award are uniformly set across all of the Councils in the BSA. The award may be earned by Scout and Scouter alike and is a great way to learn more about Scouting around the globe.

Messengers of Peace

All over the world, Scouts are running projects that help people. They solve conflicts in school by preventing bullying, lead peer education programs, help the poor and the hungry, create solutions to environmental problems, and run countless other service projects. Messengers of Peace is the initiative that brings all of this work together.
