JAMBOREE-ON-THE-AIR

The OC International Committee held its JOTA campout on October 19th and 20th at The Ranch. Scouts and Scouters used amateur radio to speak with others across the US and the world. Palmer, Alaska and Osaka, Japan were just two of the places the Scouts contacted during the weekend.

Twenty Scouts participated in the Merit Badge program during the weekend. They earned the Radio, Electronics and Electricity Merit Badges.

WOSM LAUNCHES NEW AND IMPROVED WEBSITE scout.org

On October 15th, The World Organization of the Scout Movement unveiled its new online presence. The Messengers of Peace website, scoutmessengers.org, has been merged with scout.org.

This new website will be a permanent online Jamboree. Scouts will continue to share their ideas, experiences and achievements with others around the globe.

Scouts who created accounts on the scoutmessengers.org can access the new site with those same credentials.

Messenger of Peace projects will be reported through this new website.
