FOUNDERS DAY / WORLD THINKING DAY February 22, 2014

Sir Robert Baden-Powell

February 22nd is the birth date of Scouting's founder, Sir Robert Baden-Powell (born 1857) and, coincidentally, also of his wife Olave Baden-Powell (born in 1889). Nearly all Scout associations around the globe recognize this date as Founders' Day. Girl Guides and Scouts recognize this day at World Thinking Day.

Sir Robert Baden-Powell established the Scout Movement with his "great experiment" at Brownsea Island in 1907. In September of 1909 the first Scout Rally was held in London. Numerous girls came to the rally in uniform and sought an audience with Sir Baden-Powell. They wanted him to allow girls to become Scouts too.

With the help of his sister Agnes, Sir Baden-Powell, established the Girl Guides in 1910.
